

TAKE A CLOSER LOOK - COMPANY PROFILE

Submission Policy

This section of the CINDE Journal is only available to Corporate and Sustaining members of the Canadian Institute for NDE (CINDE).

The purpose is to share information about Corporate and Sustaining members with Journal subscribers. The article cannot be an advertisement. It should include newsworthy information and historical details about the company such as how it got started, factors contributing to company growth, key business activities and services and significant achievements. The company's future vision of NDE in Canada and the reason for supporting CINDE as a Corporate or Sustaining member must be clearly described.

Please limit articles to approximately half a page (400-500 words), and it can be accompanied by 2-3 pictures of the company facilities and staff. Picture(s) should be in jpg or tif format at a resolution of 300 dpi or greater.

All submissions must be accompanied by a copy of this policy signed by a company representative who is authorized to disclose details of the company. The CINDE reserves the right to edit content and / or withhold publication of any material as submitted. Timing of publication may be limited according to the availability of space and will appear on CINDE website.
